- Most revered leader
- Miraculous life
- God's revelation

11:24-26 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 choosing rather to endure ill-treatment with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin, 26 considering the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the reward.

CHOICES

The background image is a still from the 1999 film 'The Merchant of Venice'. It depicts Shylock, played by Al Pacino, in the center, shirtless and bound in heavy metal chains. He is being led by two men in period clothing. The man on the left is wearing a white tunic and a dark sash, while the man on the right is wearing a white tunic and a dark sash with a white star pattern. They are walking through a public square with a crowd of people in the background.

- Refused position of privilege
- Chose ill-treatment
- Rejected pleasures of privilege
- Calculated cost
- Trusted in future reward

A photograph of a sunset over a large body of water, likely the Sea of Galilee. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, with a shimmering path of light reflecting down the water's surface. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds, and the overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative. The foreground shows the dark silhouette of a hillside.
