The image shows a landscape with ancient ruins in the foreground and a large, craggy mountain in the background. The ruins consist of several walls and foundations made of large, rectangular stone blocks. Some blocks are stacked in a wall, while others are scattered on the ground. The ground is a mix of dirt and sparse green grass. The mountain in the background is a prominent, rounded peak with a textured, rocky surface. The sky is overcast with grey clouds. The text 'βημα (bema)' is overlaid in the center of the image in a yellow, bold font with a blue outline.

Sea of Galilee

A photograph of the Sea of Galilee at sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb on the horizon, casting a long, shimmering reflection across the water's surface. In the foreground, a dark, curved pier or breakwater extends from the left side into the water. In the middle ground, a long pier structure with several truss-like spans is visible. The sky is a gradient of soft colors from light blue to orange. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.
