Historical Geology

A large, diverse crowd of people, likely at a concert or festival, with many individuals raising their hands in the air. The crowd is dense and fills the frame, extending into the background. The people are of various ages and ethnicities, and many are wearing casual clothing. The overall atmosphere appears to be one of excitement and participation.

FLOOD VS. HISTORICAL GEOLOGY

A satellite-style photograph of Earth, showing a view of the planet's surface with swirling cloud patterns over the continents. The image is in a dark, monochromatic color scheme, possibly infrared or a specific spectral band, highlighting the intricate patterns of the atmosphere. The text "YOUNG VS. OLD EARTH" is overlaid in the top right corner in a bold, yellow, serif font.

“Our theory of evolution has become ... one which cannot be refuted by any possible observations. It is thus 'outside of empirical science', but not necessarily false. No one can think of ways in which to test it.” ... (evolutionary ideas) have become part of an evolutionary dogma accepted by most of us as part of our training.”
